Acacia Bamberg Salatti - Deputy Director
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
Center for Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships

Acacia Salatti joined the Center for Faith-based and Neighborhood Partnerships as the deputy director in September 2009. Acacia comes to this position from the office of House Majority Whip James E. Clyburn, where she was lead staffer for the House Democratic Faith Working Group. In addition, she handled the congressman's education, agriculture, and environmental portfolio. Acacia holds a master's in divinity and a certificate in black church studies from Candler School of Theology at Emory University. She is also a former adjunct professor of religion at Columbia College, her alma mater.
